

Hats off to a tree of green

Rita Algerie, Raj Pathani & Kitty Bernard garnish the tree with St. Patrick's Day cheer.

Continued on page 3

There's always a reason to Celebrate

Residents of Senior Horizons at Newburgh near Orange Lake love to celebrate and decorate!

They're commemorating the holidays by keeping a "holiday" tree up all year round. The tree started out as just an ordinary Christmas tree, adorned with sparkling bulbs and festive ornaments. The Christmas tree was so pretty and so admired, that a group of holiday décor crafters decided to decorate the tree for special days throughout the year.

Last month the tree was trimmed with symbols of love for Valentine's Day. This March, green sparkled hats and shamrocks gleam next to all the tree lights. Soon the tree will shout the revival of spring and Easter spirit. "We enjoy keeping holiday traditions alive," said tree crafter Rita Algeria.

And where do they get all the snazzy decorations? Each resident tree crafter donates toward what is needed to create a dazzling tree.

The proud tree stands in the main entrance of the residence, welcoming visitors and the people who live there, keeping the holidays alive and celebrated. Happy "holidays" to all!

The talented and spirited tree crafters L to R- Rita Algeria, Raj Pathani, Judy Van Vlack, Dotty Whitehouse, Kitty Bernard, Peggy Bennect, Annie Livogi & Hector Maisonet.